

OLIVIA

ASOR

OLIVIA 2.1 is an experimental robotic platform to evaluate various technologies relevant to social robotics. The robotic brain module makes it easier for various modules or algorithms to be integrated.

Various research is currently undergoing using OLIVIA, which includes attention directed dialog for sophisticated human-robot interaction & human-robot physical interaction to achieve safe and “soft” robotic motion.

Agency for Science, Technology and Research