

DA VINCI CLOUD COMPUTING FRAMEWORK

DAVINCI is a Cloud-computing framework for service robots. It enables simple, embedded robots such as the Roomba to perform higher intelligence functions such as location tracking. DAVINCI is platform agnostic and uses an XML based message parser. It is currently compatible with ROS and Player. DAVINCI's flagship feature is Mapping as a Service that enables new robots in mapped environments to navigate instantly.